

Sergeant Mike Robison has worked for the Covina Police Department since 1996. Sergeant Robison worked in the Patrol Division as an officer and Field Training Officer before being selected to work as a Special Enforcement Team (SET) Detective. As a SET Detective Sergeant Robison specialized in conducting gang and narcotic investigations. Sergeant Robison also worked as a Crimes Against Persons Detective before promoting to Sergeant in March of 2012.

Sergeant Robison has been a member of the department's Special Response Team (SRT) since its inception. SRT is the department's tactical unit. Sergeant Robison served as the team's Sniper, and is now one of two sergeants assigned to the team.

Sergeant Robison was selected as the Police Officer of the Year in 2009 for outstanding service and significant contributions. Sergeant Robison is currently assigned to the patrol division as a field supervisor.
